

10 Myths About Addiction Treatment

TREATMENT CAN'T CURE ADDICTION.

Recovery is a lifelong process but treatment is the critical first step in starting that process. Your loved one can live a full and rewarding life, if they accept help.

01

TREATMENT DOESN'T WORK.

Our 30+ years and over 40,000 patients and families served think otherwise. Treatment works and recovery is real.

02

YOUR LOVED ONE MUST "HIT ROCK BOTTOM" BEFORE SEEKING HELP.

Bottom is the moment just before a person is given the opportunity to receive help and accepts it. Don't wait, seek help now.

03

YOUR LOVED ONE MUST "WANT IT" FOR IT TO WORK.

Eventually the goal is wanting to improve your own life but there's no wrong reason to start the recovery process.

04

IT'S TOO DIFFICULT FOR FAMILY AND FRIENDS TO HELP.

Ashley provides many resources and directions to help your loved one find the help they need.

05

MY LOVED ONE TRIED TREATMENT BEFORE AND IT DIDN'T WORK, SO WHAT'S THE POINT?

Ashley uses a blend of medicine, therapy, and holistic services to provide a comprehensive and effective treatment plan.

06

TREATMENT IS A TEMPORARY FIX.

Our goal is lifelong recovery and we offer the support and services to achieve just that.

07

TREATMENT IS TOO EXPENSIVE.

At Ashley, we work with you to create a plan for affordable treatment whether it be with your insurance, self-pay or through loan programs.

08

GOING INTO TREATMENT MEANS FAILING OUT OF SCHOOL OR LOSING A JOB.

People suffering from addiction are granted protections through FMLA and The Americans with Disabilities Act. We can help you navigate these protections.

09

ALL TREATMENT PROGRAMS ARE THE SAME.

Ashley prides itself in being considered one of the top treatment providers in the country and in offering all the services necessary to set our program apart.
