

Ashley Facts

- Ashley is a non-profit Joint Commission accredited substance abuse treatment center
- Ashley Addiction Treatment was founded in 1983 and have treated more than 45,000 patients and their families
- Our driving principle – everything for recovery – reinforces our timeless mission to treat each person with dignity and respect.
- Ashley’s main campus in Havre de Grace, MD is situated on 147 acres overlooking the Chesapeake Bay and houses 117 inpatient treatment beds.
- At Ashley we offer a seamless system of care ranging from ambulatory detox services to a 60-day emerging adult extended care program.
- Two intensive outpatient programs: one located at Union Hospital in Elkton, MD and one located at Upper Chesapeake Hospital in Bel Air, MD.
- One 8-bed male emerging adult extended care house in Churchville, MD.
- Ashley has awarded $25 million in charitable care over the past 10 years.
- Medical staff includes psychiatrists, physicians, physicians assistants, registered and licensed practical nurses, certified nursing assistants.
- Clinical staff includes psychologist and 80% of counselors are masters level.
- Ashley offers a Family Wellness Program that spans 3 days every week and provides families with essential education, therapy, tools, and ongoing support.
- We are in-network with most insurance carriers.